

Going nuclear: FDU hosts panel discussion about Iran's nuclear problem

MADISON, N.J. (September 22, 2014)—Fairleigh Dickinson University presents a panel discussion on “Iran’s Nuclear Program and the U.S. Response,” with former Iranian nuclear negotiator Seyed Hossein Mousavian and journalist Bob Dreyfuss. The discussion will be held on Sept. 30th, at 7 p.m. in the Monninger Center at FDU’s Florham Campus in Madison, N.J.

Robert Dreyfuss is an investigative journalist and contributing editor to “The Nation”. He is also the author of “Devil’s Game: How the United States Helped Unleash Fundamentalist Islam.”

Seyed Hossein Mousavian is an associate research scholar at Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. He is also the former head of the Foreign Relations Committee of Iran’s National Security Council, and a former spokesman for Iran in nuclear negotiations with European Union.

The panel discussion is hosted by PublicMind, FDU’s Monninger Center for Learning and Research, and the New Jersey Public Policy Network. PublicMind is an independent research group at FDU that conducts polls and surveys, and other research on politics, society, popular culture, consumer, and economic trends.
