آنچه که ترامپ باید در مورد مردم ایران بداند

By سید امیر حسین موسویان بهمن ۳۰، ۱۳۹۶

Article Summary

رئیس جمهور آمریکا، دونالد ترامپ، باید قبل از اینکه دیر شود، به از بین رفتن حسن نیت ایرانیان نسبت به آمریکا توجه کند.

بعد از پیروزی انقلاب اسلامی در ایران در سال 1979، آمریکا همیشه علاقه مند به تغییر رژیم در ایران بوده اما برای اولین بار با روی کار آمدن ترامپ، این موضوع بعنوان سیاست رسمی آمریکا اعلام و روابط واشینگتن-تهران را با سنگین ترین چالش چهل سال گذشته مواجه کرده است. کاخ سفید همچنان آشکار نموده که این سیاست را از دو طریق دنبال میکند، اول: افزایش فشار و تحریم، مقابله باتوان دفاعی و جایگاه منطقه ای ایران، دوم: حمایت از مردم ایران برای تغییر رژیم از درون.

بعد از کودتای 1953 آمریکا و انگلیس در ایران که منجر به سقوط دولت دموکراتیک و مردمی محمد مصدق و روی کار آوردن دولت دیکتاتوری شاه در ایران شد، واشینگتن توانست به مدت حدود سی سال، قدرتمند ترین و گسترده ترین حضور نظامی-سیاسی-اقتصادی-فرهنگی خود در ایران را تحقق بخشد. انقلاب اسلامی 1979 و سقوط شاه در ایران بزرگترین شکست آمریکا در منطقه را رقم زد بگونه ای که ژاندارم و متحد استراتژیک آمریکا به دشمن استراتژیک در منطقه تبدیل شد.

مهمترین عامل این شکست اشتباه آمریکا در شناخت و درک درست مردم و شرایط داخلی ایران بود. کارتر در دسامبر 1977 به تهران سفر کرد، ایران تحت رهبری شاه را "جزیره ثبات" و شاه ایران را بخاطر "عشق و احترام مردم" ایران ستود. تنها چندماه بعد از اظهارات کارتر، شعار "مرگ بر شاه" و "مرگ بر آمریکا" در تظاهرات میلیونی مردم ایران تین انداز شد و حدود یکسال بعد هم مردم ایران نظام 2500 ساله شاهنشاهی در ایران را ساقط کردند.

ترامپ مردم ایران را به قیام علیه حکومت ایران دعوت کرده، تیلرسون حمایت واشینگتن از مردم برای تغییر رژیم در ایران را علنا اعلام نموده و سناتور تام کاتن هم عملیات پنهان آمریکا از مخالفین داخلی را راهکار تغییر رژیم در ایران دانسته است. در شرایطی که آمریکا با سه دهه تسلط بر ایران، در شناخت اوضاع داخلی ایران اشتباه فاحشی کرد، میتوان توقع داشت که در غیاب چهل سال عدم حضور و روابط دیپلماتیک با ایران، خطاهای دولت ترامپ در شناخت مردم و اوضاع ایران، فاحش تر و متعاقبا عواقب آن هم برای آمریکا خطرناکتر باشد. لذا درک صحیح آمریکا از مردم ایران کلیدی است.

ایرانیها با تمدن و تاریخ چند هزارساله، صاحب یکی از چهار تمدن بزرگ تاریخ بشر و لذا ملتی مغرور هستند. ترامپ در سخنرانی سپتامبر خود در مجمع عمومی سازمان ملل ملت ایران را ملتی با تاریخ و تمدنی بزرگ خواند اما یک ماه بعد در اکتبر 2017، او ملت ایران را تروریست خواند. کاخ سفید باید ابتدویش کند که با چه ملتی صحبت میکند، ملتی تروریست یا متمدن. علاوه بر آن مشخص کند که آیا میخواهد با زبان تحقیر و توهین بامردم ایران صحبت کند یا با زبان احترام.

نکته مهم دوم درک درست از خواست مردم ایران است. در دسامبر گذشته تظاهراتی در شهرهای ایران برگزار شد که ریشه آن نارضایتی اقتصادی بود. در برخی از شهرها تظاهرات به خشونت کشیده شد. کاخ سفید از تظاهرات اعتراضی و خشونت ها حمایت کرد و ترامپ هم گفت مردم ایران در مسیر درست افتاده اند. انعکاس اعتراضات در سطح رسانه های غربی بسیار وسیع و همراه با بزرگنمایی و اغراق زیادی بود. با این وجود هنگامیکه مردم شاهد خشونت و نقض امنیت ملی خود شدند، تظاهرات متقابلی در شهرهای بیشتری برافه افتاد که تعداد شرکت کنندگان دهها هزار نفری بود اما رسانه های غربی تظاهرات دوم را اید پوشش ندادند. مهمتر اینکه در 10 فوریه 2018 تظاهرات مردمی بزرگداشت انقلاب اسلامی 1979 در ایران با حضور میلیونها نفر در ایران اما رسانه های آمریکا از پوشش آن خودداری کردند. عدم انعکاس حقایق در مورد مردم ایران توسط رسانه ها موجب انحراف از واقعیتها و زمینه ساز ارزیابی ها و تصمیم گیریهای غلط میشود.

اخیر دانشگاه مریلند آمریکا افکار سنجی انجام از مردم ایران انجام داد که خلاصه نتیجه آن اینست که اکثریت مردم ایران ضمن نارضایتی از وضع اقتصادی و معیشتی، با تغییر رژیم و خشونت مخالف هستند. برخلاف سیاست ترامپ، اکثریت مردم ایران از بگرام و توان دفاعی و موشکی ایران و سیاستهای منطقه ای ایران حمایت میکنند و لذا در این سه موضوع، دولت ترامپ در مقابل خواست اکثریت مردم ایران قرار دارد. این نظر سنجی نشان میدهد که سردار سلیمانی که فرماندهی نیروهای ایران در منطقه را بعهده دارد با 83% محبوب ترین شخصیت ایران است در حالیکه آمریکا او را تروریست خوانده و در لیست تحریم قرار داده است. همچنین اکثریت مردم ایران ضمن نارضایتی از ناکارآمدیهای حکومت در اداره مناسب اوضاع اقتصادی، دولت ترامپ را نیز بخاطر عدم اجرای درست بگرام در ایجاد مشکلات اقتصادی شان مسئول میدانند.

آمریکا در ایران و جهان اسلام تصویری منفی دارد. افکار عمومی ایران نسبت به عربستان و اسرائیل بسیار منفی است. ترامپ با تشکیل اتحاد علنی با اسرائیل و عربستان علیه ایران، به مشکلات آمریکا با مردم ایران افزوده است. افکار سنجی دانشگاه مریلند نشان میدهد در حالیکه بیش از 80% مردم ایران مخالف دولت آمریکا هستند در حالیکه روسیه و چین در نزد اکثریت افکار عمومی ایران از مقبولیت برخوردار شده اند.

ایران در 200 سال گذشته بارها مورد تجاوز قرار گرفته است. ایران قبل از انقلاب از سوی روسیه و انگلیس مورد تجاوز قرار گرفته و بخشهایی از سرزمین خود را از دست داد. بعد از انقلاب اسلامی 1979 نیز توسط عراق با حمایت آمریکا و متحدین عربی مورد تجاوز نظامی قرار گرفته و صدها هزار شهروندش قربانی و صدها میلیارد دلار خسارت دیده است. این در حالی است که ایران در 250 سال گذشته به هیچ کشوری تجاوز نکرده است. لذا طبیعی است که ملت ایران از مداخله و تهدید خارجی متنفر بوده و در مقابل با آن متحد شود.

چنانچه ترامپ روزی بخواهد روابط با ایران را بهبود بخشد باید اعتماد مردم ایران را جلب و بر اساس خواست افکار عمومی و واقعیت ها سیاستهای جاری خود در مورد ایران را مورد تجدید نظر اساسی قرار دهد در غیر اینصورت احیاء سیاستهای خصمانه آمریکا علیه ایران، عواقب منفی زیانبار و غیرقابل پیش بینی خواهد داشت.

this author is a puppet for the mullahs, and he puts on an academic, rationalist face to try and sway American opinion. Should Roosevelt have considered the German people's pride and their support for Hitler and not gone to war with the Third Reich? Mousavian's article is not only a lie, but it's stupid as well

If you think the so-called president Trump would go war in Iran, then you're proving the stupid one is you, not the author.

You are stupid enough to fall for the noise emitted by a sexual predator and a money launderer for the Russian oligarchs.

That's funny, because one major goal of all dictatorships is to round up women for the male leaders. That's why a large swath of the Chinese people are related to Ghenghis Kahn, why Castro slept with as many Cuban women as he could hold down, why Mao slept with more women than anyone can imagine, many of them underage, and why Stalin also kept very busy. I suggest you go film the Iranian leadership's bedrooms now for release when the great Iranian people come to their senses as they always do in between fits of extremism.

The narrative of Mr Mousavian is problematic when it comes to the regime's support among Iranians. Those demonstrations in support of the regime have been going on yearly with direct planning and promotion by the state and regime and therefore they are no indication of popular support in the population. On the contrary the anti-regime demonstrations are of importance, since the participants risk being arrested, tortured or even killed inside prisons (which happened to at least 3 protestors). That is why they deserved more coverage in the media

This is a brilliant analysis of the situation. I am an Iranian and I travel back and forth regularly to Iran, and have spoken with people from all walks of life, from the privileged to taxi drivers. I have not met a single person since 9/11 who condones the U.S.'s hypocritical and self-serving policies towards Iran, Israel and Saudi Arabia. Even those Iranians who despise their regime praise it for having immunized it from the military threats of U.S.-Saudi created Al Qaeda and ISIS.

In fact, almost all Iranians consider the true Axis of Evil to be, not North Korea, pre-invasion Iraq and Iran but the U.S.A., Israel and Saudi Arabia.

Rednecks and hillbillies will continue supporting Trump till they realize his 'populist' measures have boosted the Wealth Gap to astronomical levels and served only the interests of Adelson, Koch and Wall Street. Meanwhile, Iran will do its own thing and build up its conventional military defences to ensure the destruction of Israel and Saudi Arabia in the event of the attacks they threaten on a daily basis. 'Regime change' will hopefully occur in the U.S. before its Neocons and Zionists realize that "Hell is answered prayers."

Now this is clearly a propaganda article. The author is lying through his teeth,

1. Iran is indeed a terrorist nation by any standard. Beside inciting proxy wars in the region, it is a funder of the internationally proscribed terrorist organization Hizbollah

2. Iran has on many occasions declared that it wants to "wipe out" Israel. Now if this is not an indicator of murderous terrorist nation than I do not know what is.

3. Iran is governed by an Islamofascist regime that throws opponents to jail, kills anti-regime demonstrators and oppresses women by forcing them to wear hijab.

Iran is a terrorist nation and should be choked economically while the democratic forces in it should be massively supported to help them to overthrow the regime of murderous Islamofascist dictators. People who "oppose the change of the regime" according to the completely false statements of the author of this article are in the streets, ready to sacrifice their lives in opposition to the regime of Islamist murderers and terrorists. The West should support the Iranian freedom fighters. The propagandist that wrote the article should continue to enjoy the academic freedom in the West, but US and Europe should not listen to this propaganda.

Here's the flaw in your logic: if Israel / the West truly wanted to change the Iranian regime, they would simply have used a couple of drone attacks on key figures of Iranian politics - back in the time when drones were new on the market, Iran was by no means prepared to ward off that kind of threat (and Israel was indeed successful in killing nuclear scientists inside Iran via dron attacks). A regime change in Iran has never been on the agenda of the Western alliance since the last time in 1979. Even Bibi NEEDS the Hamas, Hezbollah, Iran etc. in order to carry on his militant, right-wing expansionist policies, regardless of the rhetorics involved. That's the logic of politics: you pursue your goals by steadily maintaining a controllable, manageable foreign threat. You are taking political statements at their face value (which is propaganda), which you really shouldn't.

↕ | ^ 1 • پاسخ • به اشتراک گذاری <

۲ روز پیش • vernier → Andras Mason

Do not put words in my mouth - it was you who said dron'em, I did not. I said - choke them economically, the Iranian freedom fighters will do the rest (and we in the West should support them). The Iranian people themselves will get rid of the hijab-forcing Islamoassholes and murderers. No need for drones.

2. They want you to die. Listen to their demonstrations.
3. They want a mullah regime throughout the Middle East (in the first stage).
4. The wallet is the most important organ for the Iranians.

The solution to the problem = sanctions.

۲ روز پیش • P. G. Ukridge → Free man

It's hardly surprising that most of the world rejects your "solution" (sanctions). China, Russia, and most European and south Asian countries are investing heavily in Iran. Trump will do whatever his Jewish advisors suggest, but sane people everywhere else see Iran's great potential for growth. And in the long term, Israel can never even approach current Iran's population (80-85 million people) or its potential for economic expansion.

3. Your favorite regime wants the US, Britain, Saudi Arabia, Israel ... to die, do you expect that in return "Trump and his Jewish advisers" will send flowers to the mullahs?
4. The truth is that the mullahs' regime is a cancer in the body of the Iranian nation. A country with enormous natural resources and advanced population has become a nation of lepers. A nation preoccupied with hatred, religious coercion, and involvement in the wars of others.
5. What is your problem with Israel? How did Israel and Jews become Iran's No. 1 obsession / enemy?

I'm glad the Shah and his government are long gone, but many of Iran's leaders got their doctorates or other degrees in the US or other modern countries while he was in office. Now they are quite old and retired, and the generation who soon will be leading the country includes few American-trained experts. Still, there's reason to hope that secular Iranian liberals will gain power within a decade or so. They already have massive support within cities and universities. The last time I visited post-revolutionary Iran, I thought that it would be my last visit. Once Trump is out of office, however, I may get a chance to return to that beautiful country and the unique Persian culture.

Having Iranian government officials periodically consult Americanologists would also be useful. Even though the two countries have no diplomatic relations, there still needs to be more knowledge among policy makers about what actually helps the national interest. If Congress, lobbyists, and others cannot handle it, perhaps it is time to add historians (specializing in the modern period) to the mix.

A collision would be extremely bad for both countries, and is the type of thing a new source of input on each side might help avert.

One always knows one is reading a lie about Iran when the author of the article blames the U. S. for overthrowing the allegedly indigenous Mohammed Mossagegh in the name of untoward Western influence in Iran.

What a joke, folks. THE most foreign and unnatural influence ever in Iran and almost everywhere else it took hold was the ultimate Western imperialism known as socialism/communism. These parochial philosophies of a few German, French, and English know-it-alls, imposed their ridiculous and jejune societal restructuring on hundreds of millions of people with disastrous effects, including Iran through Mossedegh, who would have been public enemy number 1 to the Mullahs if the Shah had never existed.

That's right, socialism and communism are not the anti-imperialist ideologies they purport to be, but rather the ultimate oppressors.

oakhill: You seem proud of your ignorance of Iranian politics and history. Your absurd assertion about "socialism/communism" is entirely irrelevant to this discussion. In the 1950s Iranian leaders such as Mossadegh had no intention of installing a communist or socialist economy, he and his compatriots were focused on increasing the Iranian share of the money that came from its oil fields. The Brits and the Americans "bought" Iranian oil at a very low price, and thereby cheated Iranians out of fabulous sums of money. This looting of Iran's natural resources continued until the Shah fled the country. No one can say what would have happened in Iran, had the American and British secret services not engineered a coup and ousted Mossadegh. It's most likely that foreign countries would have found some way of continuing to cheat the Iranians.
